

We received several applications from many qualified individuals across the State of Wyoming for a seat on the State Qualifications Review Committee (SQRC). The applications were reviewed by the Selection Committee which was comprised of the Wyoming State Forester, Wyoming State Fire Marshal, and Director of the Wyoming Office of Homeland Security. If you were not offered the seat for which you applied, but would like to continue to be involved in the certification process for a Wyoming Type III Incident Management Team, we kindly ask that you consider assisting the committee as a subject matter expert.
